WORKSHOP MEETING SEPTEMBER 30, 1996

Mayor Maugham called the workshop to order at 8.20 p.m. Commissioner Gawlik and Commissioner Pfeifer were present and confirmed by roll call.

(a) Discussion on utility policies went well. It was discussed to place this on the October agenda.

(b) Discussion on the criminal history check and that having it done does not guarantee that the person hired is honest or law bidding, Work history can tell a lot about a person. Mayor Maugham also stated for the record that she did not feel that an applicant for laborer at $5.00 an hour could pay the cost to have a criminal history check done and that if it was kept in the policy, then it needs to be changed to where the city pays for this. Also the matter of discrimination was brought up and where do we draw the line if the person does have a record; 5 years, 20 years? It was discussed to place this issue on the October agenda as well.

Meeting adjourned at 9.05 p.m.

Respectfully,

Teri Hogan
City Secretary
