3. Budget Workshop

Mayor Orr opened the workshop and explained to the City Council the process of budgeting in conjunction with the details within. He explained where the monies, debts, assets, etc., played parts within. He explained how the M & O rates effected budgeting. He advised the City Council that income could be up about 14% next year.

The revenue of sales taxes was discussed along with the property tax rebates of about $23,000.00 which will expire this year.

The increase of homes being constructed the past year will help increase property taxes dramatically.

He did mention the monies that have been set aside for various projects should be carried over to the next year.

The City Council was advised to take the information submitted them, examine it and make any changes and bring the information back to the next workshop.
